34th Annual North Myrtle Beach Community Easter Egg Hunt is March 26, 10:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m., at McLean Park

North Myrtle Beach, SC – March 14, 2016 – The 38th Annual North Myrtle Beach Community Easter Egg Hunt will be held Saturday, March 26, 10:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m., at McLean Park (93 Oak Drive) in North Myrtle Beach. The egg begins at 10:00 a.m. sharp.

Egg hunt areas are divided by age groups (infant and above), and there are many other activities for all ages. The North Strand Optimist Club will provide refreshments.

The Easter Bunny will make a special visit to McLean Park to hand out candy to all the children that attend. Participants are encouraged to wear their Easter best to have their photo made with Ms. Blossom. The North Strand Optimist Club will provide refreshments.

This is a very popular event with hundreds of kids participating each year. There is limited parking at McLean Park, and participants are advised to arrive early, park in the Main Street area, then walk to the park.

The event is a combined effort of the North Myrtle Beach Parks & Recreation Department, North Myrtle Beach Chamber of Commerce, North Strand Optimist Club, North Myrtle Beach Lions Club, Keep North Myrtle Beach Beautiful, Driftwood Keep America Beautiful Kids, North Myrtle Beach High School Clubs, North Myrtle Beach Public Safety Department, and many individual volunteers.

Volunteers are always welcome to help with the Easter Egg Hunt from 8:00 a.m.–1:00 p.m.
