Mission BBQ Donates $2,478.70 to Shop with a Cop and MUSC Children's Hospital Burned Children's Fund

North Myrtle Beach, SC – October 9, 2018 – Recently, MISSION BBQ, 1380 Highway 17 North, North Myrtle Beach, presented the North Myrtle Beach Department of Public Safety with $2,478.70.

The money was raised by Mission BBQ and its customers, to be split between the North Myrtle Beach Public Safety Department's Shop with a Cop program and the MUSC Children's Hospital Burned Children's Fund, the latter a continuation of a program founded in 1986 by South Carolina's firefighters.

Throughout 2018, MISSION BBQ has donated a total of $5,532.70 for the two programs.

We thank MISSION BBQ and its customers for having contributed to these great programs!

Fire Inspector Jay Ortiz accepts check for Burned Children's Fund from Mission BBQ Community Ambassador Angela McLeod.
