CITY OF NORTH MYRTLE BEACH SCHEDULES FEBRUARY 8 PUBLIC PARKING WORKSHOP

North Myrtle Beach, SC – February 4, 2019 – The City of North Myrtle Beach has hired the consulting firm Kimley-Horn to help assess existing public parking opportunities and develop short-term and long-term public parking solutions.

People interested in public parking in North Myrtle Beach are encouraged to participate in a Friday, February 8, 2:00 p.m.-6:00 p.m. workshop at City Hall, during which they can share with Kimley-Horn representatives their thoughts and suggestions on public parking opportunities and issues in North Myrtle Beach.

The workshop offers a “drop-in” format, which means people can arrive and leave at any time between 2:00 p.m. and 6:00 p.m.

This opportunity will be interactive and informative, providing participants with opportunities to help refine the vision and goals for public parking in North Myrtle Beach, view and discuss various potential alternative public parking solutions, and provide input on the best solutions for the community.
