CANCELLED -- Irish Italian International Festival

North Myrtle Beach, SC – September 25, 2018 –
Due to the continuing impacts of Hurricane Florence, the 15th Annual Irish Italian International Festival, which was scheduled for this weekend, is cancelled.

Although North Myrtle Beach was spared most of the long-term impacts from Hurricane Florence, many of the cities and towns surrounding us in Horry County and beyond were not. Many festival vendors and festival support services personnel are either still awaiting, in the midst of, or beginning to recover from flooding and other storm impacts. Travel to and from the area is still unpredictable at this time. Cancelling the event is best for the well-being of all involved.
