SANITATION SERVICES UPDATE

North Myrtle Beach, SC – September 4, 2019 – Hurricane Dorian may well continue to change its speed and course in the near future, but based on the Wednesday, September 4, 11:00am National Hurricane Center forecast, Thursday and Friday sanitation collection in the City of North Myrtle Beach will occur Friday on a delayed schedule based on real-time wind speeds. Please do not put your roll-outs or other containers at curbside on Thursday morning or Thursday evening. Put them out on Friday morning.

We will update this plan as circumstances warrant.
